

Governing Globalization: G8, Public and Corporate Governance

Draft program for a pre-summit conference co-hosted by Research Group on Global Financial Governance, Guido Carli Association,
INSEAD, the Club of Athens, le Comité pour un Parlement Mondial, Futuribles and the Académie de la Paix

Tuesday, May 27, 2003

INSEAD, Fontainebleau

Draft: April 16, 2003

08h45–09h00 Welcoming Remarks

09h00–10h15 Challenges for Governance

Chair:

- Olivier Giscard d'Estaing, INSEAD
(corporate governance)
- Seiichi Kondo, Deputy Secretary General, OECD (former Japanese sherpa)
- Kimon Valaskakis, Global Governance Group
(global governance)

10h15–11h15 Governing Globalization: Principles and Pathways

Chair:

- Pierre Jacquet, Agence française de développement
“Global Governance: The Economic Institutions of Globalization”
- Pierre Marc Johnson, Heenan Blaikie
(from G8 to global governance)

11h15–11h30 Break

11h30–12h45 G8 Contributions and Challenges: From Kananaskis to Evian and Beyond

Chair: Shinichiro Uda

- Nicholas Bayne, London School of Economics and Political Science
“G7/8 Performance from Birmingham to Evian and Beyond”
- John Kirton, G8 Research Group, and Victoria Panova, Moscow State
Institute of International Relations
“Prospects for the 2003 Evian G8 Summit and Beyond”
- Ella Kokotsis, G8 Research Group
(Compliance with G8 Commitments)

12h45–14h00 Lunch

14h00–15h30 Public Governance: Challenges and Contributions

Chair:

- Heidi Ullrich, London School of Economics and Political Science (trade and the WTO)
- Michele Fratianni, Indiana University
“Governance and the International Financial Institutions” (co-authored with John Pattison)
- Stéphane Doumbé-Billé, Université Jean-Moulin (Lyon 3) (sustainable development and the UN system)
- Désirée McGraw, McGill University (new vision for sustainable development)

15h30–16h45 Corporate Governance: Contributions and Challenges

Chair:

- Don Brean, University of Toronto, and Christopher Kobrak, École Supérieure de Commerce (corporate governance)
- Alan Rugman, Oxford University (foreign direct investment in the triad and beyond)
- Paolo Savona, LUISS University
“Some Views on the Growth in Population and Technology in the New International Order (and Disorder)”

16h45–17h00 Break

17h00–18h00 Coherence in Global Governance: Bringing G8 and Corporate and Public Governance Together

Chair:

To be determined